MISS BARCO ENTERTAINS.

One of the Most Delightful of Ocala's Many Delightful Social Functions.

There have been many very delightful and brilliant entertainments in Ocala this winter and spring but none have been more brilliant nor more thoroughly enjoyed than the dance at the Ocala House Monday night at which Miss (Sue Barco) entertained in honor of her guest, Miss Bessie Denham, of Savannah, Ga.

Miss Barco was very handsome in white organdie while the guest of honor was beautifully gowned in blue crepe de chene.

Miss Barco was assisted in receiving and entertaining her guests by her mother, Mrs. J. M. Barco, and Mrs. E. L. Carney.

There were between forty and fifty guests participating in the dance and a number of others as spectators.

The music was furnished by Prof. W. S. Pike and the dancing was continued until long past midnight.

Miss Barco's dance to Miss Denham was pronounced the most delightful function of the season.

Moonlight Ride to Silver Springs.

Last night the young people had a delightful picnic drive to Silver Springs. The night was a perfect one for a moonlight ride, and the picnic was a most pleasant one from beginning to end.

The trip to the springs was made in two wagons. After the springs were reached the party boarded the "Helen" and floated for several miles down the beautiful and pellucid waters of the far-famed Silver Springs. A picnic lunch was served on board the boat.

After returning from the water the young people went to the Brown House and were most hospitably treated by Mr. and Mrs. Brown. Dancing was indulged in for a short while, after which the party returned to Ocala tired but having spent a very charming evening.

The following were the party, chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. E. L. McIntosh:

Misses Bessie Denham, of Savannah, Ga.; Mary Ross, of Jackson, Tenn.; Gertrude Pereda, Lena and Marie Bullock, Sue Barco, Iva Standley, Sara and Violet Harris, Polly Williams, Alice Reedy and Messrs. Chester Finch, Tom Harris, Will Taylor, J. H. Taylor, E. L. Scott, W. H. Powers, W. M. Dale, C. H. Lloyd, T. K. Slaughter, S. Jewett, J. H. Mathews, T. W. Lutz, S. E. Hiller and Lee Miller.

A lazy liver may be only a tired liver, or a starved liver. A stick is all right for the back of a lazy man. But it would be a savage as well as a stupid thing to beat a weary man or a starving man because he lagged in his work. So in treating the lagging liver it is a great mistake to lash it with drastic drugs. In ninety-nine cases out of a hundred a torpid or sluggish liver is but a symptom of an ill-nourished body, whose organs are weary with overwork. Let your liver alone. Start with the stomach and its allied organs of digestion and nutrition. Put them in proper working order, and see how quickly your liver will become active and energetic. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has made many marvelous cures of "liver trouble" by its wonderful control of the organs of digestion and nutrition. It restores the normal activity of the stomach, increases the secretions of the blood-making glands, cleanses the system from poisonous accumulations, and so relieves the liver of the burdens imposed upon it by the defection of other organs.

Mrs. Sistrunk Gives a Beautiful Gard Party.

Mrs. Simeon T. Sistrunk entertained yesterday afternoon from 3:30 to 6 o'clock at progressive whist.

It was one of the largest and most elaborate and delightful afternoon card parties ever given in Ocala.

The lovely home was profusely decorated with flowers of all kinds and beautiful trailing vines.

The guests were met at the door by little Misses Annie Atkinson, Alice Bullock and Sue Anderson.

Mrs. Sistrunk received her guests in the parlor. She was looking extremely beautiful in a black and white organdie gown.

The ladies were ushered into the dining room by Miss Gertrude Pereda, where delicious fruit punch was served by Mrs. J. M. Benton, Mrs. C. A. Tyding and Miss Esther Weathers.

All the afternoon Prof. W. S. Pike played most exquisite music which added a great deal to the fairy like scene.

Tables were placed in the parlor, hall, sitting room, library and piazzas.

At each table were placed different kinds of flowers as souvenirs. The score cards were decorated with lilacs of the valley.

Mrs. J. M. Benton and Miss Mary Apperson kept the scores.

The first prize, a game of ping pong, was won by Mrs. Pearl Mason, the second, a game of bridge whist, by Miss Violet Harris, and the consolation, a book of poems, was awarded to Miss Lena Bullock.

The refreshments which were dainty, were served by Alice Bullock, Annie Atkinson and Sue Anderson.

The following were Mrs. Sistrunk's guests: Mesdames J. M. Benton, C. A. Tydings, Jean Austin, D. S. Woodrow, J. J. Gerig, M. C. Looney, William Anderson, J. J. Carstens, Bessie McConnell, Pearl Mason, W. V. Newsom, G. T. Palmer, Mallory Liddon, Misses Mary Apperson, Claude Bond, Iva Standley, Alice Reedy, Lulu Gary, Polly Williams, Sue Barco, Bessie Denham, Emily Ford, Esther Weathers, Edith Platt, Agnes Rollinson, Sara Agnew, Mary Reardon, Mona Hiller, Johnnie Liddon, Valeta Potter, Gertrude Pereda, Hattie Dye, Florrie Crook, Mary Ross, Lena Bullock, Marie Bullock, Meta Jewett, Annie Davis, Sara and Violet Harris.

Whist Club Entertained.

Monday afternoon Miss Esther Weathers most pleasantly entertained the Young Ladies' Whist Club. Miss Weathers is always a gracious hostess and has that happy faculty of making her guests feel at home. This was one of the most pleasant meetings of the club this season.

There were sixteen guests present. After about twenty-two rounds of whist were played most delicious refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Miss Hattie Dye.

The club prize, a handsome picture frame, was won by Miss Florrie Crook, and Miss Mary Ross won the visitor's prize, a pretty hat pin.

The following were Miss Weathers' guests:

Mrs. Gabriel J. Palmer, Washington, Ga.; Mrs. D. S. Woodrow, Misses Margaret Eagleton, Edith Platt, Florrie Crook, Lena and Marie Bullock, Bessie Denham, Mary Ross, Mary Reardon, Lonella Gary, Meta Jewett, Sue Barco, Emily Ford, Sara and Violet Harris.

The Reading Club.

The weekly meeting of the Ocala Reading Club occurred Tuesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Josiah Varn. There were ten members present.

Two splendid magazine articles were read before the club. The first one was "Some Unhappy Queens," read by Miss M. Byrd Watermann, and the other, "The Modern Novel," by Mrs. Varn. Miss Claudia Miller had a very fine paper on Richardson, Fielding and Smollett.

A program committee consisting of Mrs. Josiah Varn, Mrs. C. C. Todd and Mrs. J. J. Gerig was appointed to arrange the program for the next six months.

The club will meet with Miss Lena Bullock next Tuesday.

Rumors are afloat that Mr. Carlos L. Sistrunk and Mr. Jesse C. Miller may announce themselves later on as candidates for the legislature.

Another Candidate.

Mr. John B. Floyd, of Irving, announces his candidacy for the legislature through the medium of this paper.

Mr. Floyd is in the prime of young manhood and comes of a distinguished Virginia family, and is a citizen of this county of several years standing.

He is thoroughly identified with the interests of the county, and has shown his love for it by winning for it one of its daughters and selecting it for a home over all other places.

Mr. Floyd possesses a natural soundly and a well balanced mind, and if elected would feel that he was the people's bargain, and would devote his time in assiduously attending to their business.

The better Mr. Floyd becomes known the better he will be liked, and the larger will be his following.

Will Leave Ocala.

The Ocala Banner reports the announcement that E. R. Abbott, Jr., as one of the partners in the E. R. Abbott & Co. firm, has been elected to the position of president of the firm. This is a pretty good compliment to a hotel and is very popular in a resort.

Mr. Abbott has been in Ocala since the hotel was built. He is a native of this state, and will remain in Ocala for the winter season.

Mr. Abbott will stay in Ocala until the hotel is ready to open. He is a hotel man, his father being a hotel man before him, and the family stands the business.

This paper wishes him success.

Doings in U. S. Court.

The case of J. N. Carter vs. H. B. Masters and R. A. Ayers was called on for trial. In this case, Carter, who died, alleged that the defendants, who were his heirs, had wrongfully taken his property and sold it. The court found in favor of the defendants, and the case was dismissed.

"Whispers of the Night Winds," by T. K. Slaughter, was read by the author. It is a collection of poems, and is very well written.

Dear Sir and Friend: Allow me to thank you for the publication of "Whispers of the Night Winds" in your issue of April 15th. I am very glad to hear that it has been so well received.

May the writer live long, write much, and the Banner never go down, shall be the wish of your humble servant.

CITIZEN COUNTY EDITOR,
Holder, Fla., April 16, 1903.

Would be No Go in the Third District.

Representative Davis, of Florida, First Congressional District, made a speech at the Hamilton dinner, held in New York city Thursday night, in which he advocated Butler as the next candidate for president in the democratic ticket. It was a safe bet for Davis to advocate Butler in his district, but it is safe to say that no supporter of the New York plan should be elected to congress from Florida's district.

The Editor Gets the "Booby" Shot.

The editor of this paper played his first game of clock and hot potato, and easily carried off the "booby" shot, enormous cabbage, unsuitably decorated with ribbons tied in round shapes.

Major Bond presented the prize in an elaborate and witty speech.

The editor hops to do better next time.

For State Senator.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the state senate from the Twentieth senatorial district, Marion and Sumner counties, subject to ratification by the people in a primary election to be hereafter called by the Democratic Executive Committee.

Respectfully,

C. M. BROWN.

Hot Jack Snell.

Some time ago this paper reported that Jack Snell had been arrested for passing counterfeit money. It turns out that it was another, and not Jack Snell.

We cheerfully make the correction.

Hewing to the Line.

The Times-Union and Citizen hews true to Democratic line, and never falters in supporting the rules and regulations laid down by those in party authority.—Times-Union and Citizen.

Get the Most Out of Your Horse.

There is no doubt that a horse is a very valuable animal, and it is important that he should be properly cared for.

One of the most important things to be remembered is that a horse should be kept in good health, and that he should be properly fed.

Another important thing to be remembered is that a horse should be properly exercised, and that he should be kept in good condition.

It is also important that a horse should be properly groomed, and that he should be kept clean.

By following these simple rules, you can get the most out of your horse, and keep him in good health and condition.

Browned in Orange Lake.

Re. O. C. and another colored man were drowned in the waters of Orange Lake. They were in a very large canoe, and were carrying a very large quantity of goods.

The boat was overturned, and the men were drowned. The goods were also lost.

The bodies of the men were found in the lake, and the goods were also found.
